

RDI was awarded the reward for National Outstanding Institution for Poverty Elimination by the State Council of China

On February 25, 2021, the National Poverty Elimination Summary and Commendation Ceremony was held at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing. Rural Development Institute of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences was awarded the reward for National Outstanding Institution for Poverty Elimination by the State Council of the People's Republic of China. Director WEI Houkai received the award on behalf of the institute.

The certificate of the award